Grand to-night—"The Tornado."
Colonial tea at the Fourth street church this evening.

Opera House this evening—The Brothers Byrne in "Eight Bells."

The Bon Ton Club will give a ball this evening, at the Democratic Club hall.

The special business of the Baltimore & Ohio for the month of February included sixty-nine parties, with a total of 1,687 people.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Wheeling Bridge & Terminal Railway Company will be held in New York on Tuesday, March 5th.

There will be a rehearsal of the Oratorio Society at Odd Fellows hall at 8 o'clock this evening. A full attendance is desired as the new books have arrived.

A Colonial Tea will be given at the Fourth street church by the Epworth League this evening. The members will costume as in Revolutionary days. Light refreshments will be served and a musical programme will be rendered.

The ladies of the United Presbyterian church will give an oyster supper and social at the church next Friday evening. Besides palatable side dishes the ladies positively guarantee that there will be "more than one oyster in the soup."

Miss Laura Conner entertained at her home on South Chapline street Saturday evening, in honor of her house guests, Miss Chamberlain and Miss Leeper, and Miss Mohr, all of Marietta, the latter being the guest of Miss Della Riley. Progressive high-five proved a delightful entertainment.

The Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern Railway Company has changed its dining car system from table d'hôte to a la carte, with the result of increased profits, better service and greater satisfaction on the part of the patrons. The cars are open for business during the entire time they are on the train and the innovation seems to have met with the approval of the passengers.

A well known man while intoxicated on Saturday evening, entered a saloon and caught a small boy about ten years of age and threw him to the floor. He was in the act of doing it the second time when the proprietor of the saloon and bystanders interfered. He again distinguished himself by wanting to thrash those who interfered, and it took the combined efforts of his friends to pacify him. The boy had gone into the saloon with a bucket, having been sent by his father to get some beer. He was doing nothing to arouse the ire of anyone.

MIND UNBALANCED.

Oliver Belleville, watchman at the La-Belle, leaves for Matamoras this morning to bring to this city his nephew, whose mind became unbalanced Saturday night from excessive use of morphine and other drugs. Mr. Belleville travels for a Pittsburgh firm, and it is hoped his affliction will only be a temporary one.

A ROYAL WELCOME.

The Beabout club is preparing to give Fitzsimmons a royal welcome Thursday evening, at the conclusion of his performance at the Grand. "Jimmy" Holmes, who won a stake on Fitz's defeat of Corbett, is a prime mover in the reception at the club house, which is proposed to be given to the lanky champion.

TO THE KLONDIKE.

Two Women Leave Wheeling en Route to the Klondike.

THEY ARE THE FIRST WOMEN

FROM THIS SECTION OF THE COUNTRY TO ATTEMPT THE TRIP INTO THE FROZEN NORTH. THEY JOIN THEIR HUSBANDS AT SEATTLE, WASH., WHERE THEY ARE FITTING FOR THE ARDUOUS JOURNEY TO THE GOLD FIELDS.

On Saturday afternoon, on the Pan Handle road, two women left Wheeling for Seattle, Wash., with the frozen Klondike as their ultimate destination. They were Mrs. D. M. Wallace and Mrs. L. M. Gorham, of Sistersville. Their husbands left Wheeling a few weeks ago, and are now at Seattle, fitting out for the trip into the gold fields. This is the first instance in this part of the country of women leaving for the Klondike gold region, and when it became known that the two ladies were bound for that region, there was great interest manifested in them by the crowd at the Pan Handle passenger station.

Both were confident of being able to withstand the rigors of the journey into the frozen north, and expected to share with their husbands all the dangers and hardships which their undertaking makes it certain they will be called upon to face. Messrs. Gorham and Wallace are fitting out in good shape at Seattle, and will not face the trip to the gold fields in the unprepared condition in which so many gold seekers have started.

BRIGHT AND BREEZY

Is "The Mount" for February—Some of Its Features.

The February number of "The Mount," the magazine published by the pupils of Mont de Chantal, has just been issued from the Intelligencer press, and is a model of breezy, interesting contributions and good press work. "The Mount" has recently taken on a more pretensions appearance, and compares favorably in make-up with many of the best magazines.

Its contents are varied and readable with profit and pleasure. Miss Manette Joyce contributes a pretty story, "The Bride's Bouquet," and "A Memorable Sleigh Ride," from Miss Julia Montague's pen is a quaint and picturesque description of the "Brownies" enjoying a winter pastime. Other articles of the same high order of merit are "An Afternoon's Sketching," by Miss Nellie Graham, "A Storm at Sea," by Miss Emma Reymann, "The Castle of Flowers," by Miss Mabel Ashmore, and "A Visit to Old Point Comfort," by Miss Margaret McSwyny. Very interesting to present and former students must be the sketch by Miss Francis McQuaid, of "Old Ben," the magnificent Newfoundland dog at the Mount.

The editorial, local, reviews and other captions contain a miscellaneous mélange that is well edited, and the February "Mount" throughout is indeed a splendid number.

A FINE ENTERTAINMENT.

The musical and literary entertainment at Moundsville on Saturday evening, given under the auspices of Ionic Lodge No. 15, A. O. U. W., was a success in every respect. The school hall was filled with members and friends of the order, and much interest was manifested. The following programme was rendered in a satisfactory manner: Recitation.....Miss Showacre Song.....John F. Mullen Screen Work, accompanied by Lecture, Madolin Duet.....Miss Showacre Good of the Order.....Miss Hood Vocal Solo.....P. M. W. O. McCluskey Vocal Solo.....Miss Dixon Vocal Music.....Lady Quartette Recitation.....Miss Hood Instrumental Music.....Beam Brothers W. O. McCluskey, P. M. W., of this city, made a fine address, entitled "Good of the Order," which is regarded as one of the finest oratorical efforts ever delivered in the hall. The audience embraced the substantial citizens of Moundsville, who were loud in their praise of the entertainment.

A FREE-FOR-ALL

Coss Albinge, the Eighth ward giant, had a busy time of it last night on his native heath, the Eighth ward. Several natives down there jumped on Coss with the intention of trimming him, but what he did to one or more of them was a plenty. Officer Myers swooped down on the assemblage and gathered Coss and one of his assailants, John Bacher. The others will likely be secured for this morning's reception at court. Coss put up for his appearance this morning.

MAY START SOON.

A settlement in the trouble at the Benwood plate mill seems likely this week, though so far no material developments in that direction have come out, but since the steelworkers went to work there is a growing feeling that the plate mill soon follow suit. Only twenty-four helpers are affected at this mill, and their differences will no doubt soon be adjusted.

THE great domestic stand-by. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, is now recognized to be a family necessity. Keep it handy.

A NEW RESTAURANT.

To Open on Market Street.
On Wednesday, March 2, C. F. Held, at No. 1207, Market street, will throw open his doors to the public as a first-class restaurant. His motto will be: "Cleanliness, good service and a solid meal." Mr. Held, as his friends well know, always caters to the taste and desires of his patrons, and his affability combined with his good judgment, will bring him to the front rank in the restaurant business. He will make a lunch counter and short orders a specialty, and will always furnish the best the market affords. All will be accommodated in a satisfactory manner, and out-of-town people will receive every attention.
